

Circle the Group you would like to be in Group 1 -Mondays/ Wednesdays

Group 2 - Tuesday/Thursday

What time does your school get out?

Why does this program interest you?

1000 Saint Nicholas Ave
New York, New York 10031
Lisa Goldstein
lisagoldstein@nypl.org
347-697-9967

The New York Public Library
is offering the chance to earn an ELA elective credit and participate in training to become a paid tutor!

How to become a Literacy Leader!

Are you in 10th, 11th or 12th grade?

The program is open to 10th, 11th
and 12 grade students in participating high schools.

Can you commit to 2 days a week?

Programming
meets two days
a week, either Monday and Wednesday, or Tuesday and Thursday.
Programming
runs from 4-6.

Are you interested in finding a job?

Students who complete the fall session with a passing grade are offered the opportunity to become a paid
tutor for the spring literacy
leaders program!

How to Apply

- ☐ If you are interested please fill out the following information
- ☐ Write clearly, if we can't read it we can't get ahold of you!
- ☐ You will receive a follow up email inviting you for an in person interview at the Washington Heights Library.

Interest Form

Name: _____

School Name: _____

Current Age and Grade: _____

Email _____

Phone Number _____