

2023 Urban Libraries Council Innovations Initiative

Terms and Conditions

Director Approval

ULC requires submitters to indicate that their library system's current director (or equivalent level executive) has approved the content of their submission. ULC will not independently verify that this approval has taken place.

ULC Membership Requirement

ULC will only accept Innovations Initiative entries from libraries that are current ULC members at the time of submission.

Permission to Reprint and Reproduce Images and Videos

ULC reserves the right to reproduce any videos or photography, illustrations, scans, renderings or other imagery included with 2023 Innovations Initiative submissions, including use in print materials, online and in presentations. Entrants must obtain permission for reproducing images and videos or the likeness of all individuals depicted in submitted images and videos prior to submission.

Editing of Submitted Language

ULC strives to minimize editing to the language of Innovations Initiative submissions, but reserves the right to edit entries as needed for clarity, accuracy or style.

Non-Disclosure Agreement

Entrants agree to not reveal whether or not their submissions have won 2023 Top Innovator or Honorable Mention awards until after the awards have been officially announced by ULC.

Assumption of Authenticity

ULC assumes no responsibility for inaccurate information included in submissions to the 2023 Innovations Initiative. ULC is committed to promptly correcting any published content upon notification of inaccurate information.

Rejection of Submissions

ULC reserves the right to reject submissions to the 2023 Innovations Initiative at the organization's discretion. Entries may be rejected due to inappropriate language or imagery, missing information, fit with the submission's selected category and duplication of previous submissions, among other reasons. ULC will notify entrants upon rejection of their submission.
